

Chapter 9

Answer the questions

1. Was the found garden different from any other place Mary had ever seen in her life?

2. What was strange about the garden?

3. Was the garden all dead?

4. How did everything look like in the garden?

5. What did Mary notice on one of the flowerbeds?

6. What did the girl do with the little sharp growing points?

7. Why did Mary become quite excited again?

8. What did Mary enjoy herself with in the garden?

9. Was the robin very much pleased to see gardening begun on his own estate?

10. What did Mary decide to spend her money on?
