

Chapter 7

Task 1. Answer the questions:

1. How did the sky and the moor look like after the rainstorm?

2. What season was coming?

3. Did Mary begin to love the moor?

4. What would Mary like to see?

5. Who did Mary find in the garden?

6. Did the gardener speak to Mary of his own accord?

7. Mary had never seen crocuses and snowdrops and daffydowndillys, hadn't she?

8. Did the robin remember Mary?

9. Why did Mary think of the robin as one of the people?

10. What did Mary find in a hole on one of the flowerbeds?

Task 2. Fill in the missing prepositions. Choose from the list:

to away over (2) in(2) to of on for of

1. Mary opened her eyes she sat upright in bed immediately, and called ____ Martha.
2. The rain-storm had ended and the gray mist and clouds had been swept ____ in the night by the wind.
3. Never, never had Mary dreamed ____ a sky so blue.
4. It made me laugh and it brought me to my senses ____ a minute.
5. She went away ____ high spirits as soon as she had given Mary her breakfast.
6. The high, deep, blue sky arched ____ Misselthwaite as well as ____ the moor.
7. He's never seen a little wench here before, an' he's bent ____ findin' out all about thee.
8. He stopped on it to look ____ a worm.
9. He spoke to her ____ his own accord.
10. Perhaps it is the key ____ the garden!

Keys:

1. to 2. away 3. of 4. in 5. in 6. over/over 7. on 8. for 9. of 10. to